

My Fun Guinea Pigs

Claire

This book is dedicated to my pets and Family and Friends

On Christmas day, I got my Guinea Pigs. Their names are ButterScotch and Brownie.

We took them out the next day. We set up a barricade so they won't escape.

But we caught her! It was a lot of trouble!

Then we went on vacation. We gave them to a babysitter.

But unfortunately when I got back from vacation, ButterScotch had died. She was sick before she died. I was crying all day and night.

But the next day, I got a new one and I named her Daisy May. She got along with Brownie quickly. Daisy looks just like ButterScotch but only she has pink ears and she is a baby.
